A Special Holiday Deal

You already know 5Heart Earthworm Farm sells Premium Worm Castings; the perfect soil-enhancer for your garden, indoor plants, and more. But did you know we're having an exclusive deal that you can still take advantage of before it's too late?

When you order 3 of our 5-gallon buckets of Premium Worm Castings, we cut the price to $100 - that's $20 off! These buckets make a meaningful gift for the special gardeners and growers in your life - plus, you could save one for yourself too!

As a bonus, we're offering FREE DELIVERY to all orders within 30 miles of Birch Run - our holiday gift to you!

Don't wait - place your order for pickup by December 19th via email or Facebook Messenger to ensure you have it in time for your gift exchange!

Quart Jar: $7 | 5-Gallon Bucket: $40
Special Deal: Three 5-Gallon Buckets: $100

Our Premium Worm Castings contain organic micronutrients that will benefit and support your soil's natural efficiency. We feed local vegetative food scraps to our earthworms to produce a high-quality fertilizer alternative.

If you're looking to give your soil a head start for spring, try 5Heart Premium Worm Castings and watch your plants thrive!

Receiving Food Scraps from Pilot Food Scrap Collection Program

Bay City and Saginaw areas

We're proud to receive vegetative food scraps from the pilot Food Scrap Collection program offered by Iris Waste Diversion Specialists. Not only do our worms love the extra nutrients, but by playing a critical role in this program we have helped to reduce methane emissions from local landfills and return what came from the earth back to the earth!

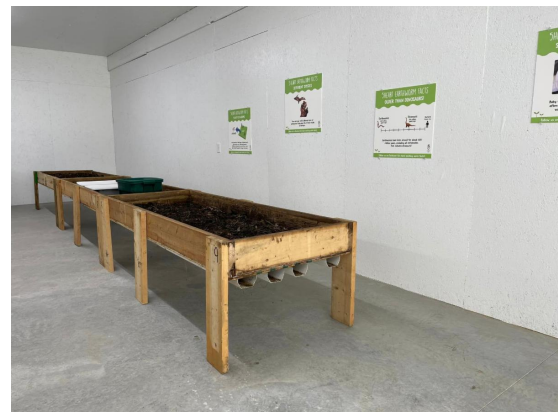

If you live in the Bay City or Saginaw area, you can subscribe to the program as well! For more information, click here.

Barn Construction Complete! 5Heart Earthworm Farm

How many people do you know that spoil their earthworms? If you know us, that makes one! Coinciding with Earthworm Day, the completion of our brand-new worm barn was celebrated at the 5Heart Earthworm Festival & Open House.

Now complete with heated floors, finished walls, full insulation, and even some interpretive signage, our worm barn is ready to start supplying you with Premium Worm Castings!

5Heart Earthworm Festival & Open House

Celebrating Healthy Worms, Soil & Environment

Attendance was high, the weather was perfect, and everyone had an all-around great time! Our first-annual 5Heart Earthworm Festival & Open House was a major success, with guests attending from all over - even some from hours away! Attendees had a variety of options on how they wanted to spend their time at the free festival, from composting and worm bin workshops to checking out the vendors to

Midland Recyclers Trunk-or-Treat

Midland

Gummy worms and free samples of our Premium Worm Castings were given away at the Midland Recyclers Trunk-or-Treat event the day before Halloween. Just like the 5Heart Earthworm Festival & Open House, attendance was high and we were able to see lots of excited faces... not to mention all the fun costumes as well!

Take a look at our creepy-crawly setup below:

enjoying some live entertainment! Inside the barn, guests could interact with our earthworms and the worm beds, as well as see a Premium Worm Castings harvest in action.

Thank you to everyone who attended the festival and showed interest in our sustainable operations. We couldn't maintain it without you! We can't wait to host an even bigger and better second-annual Earthworm Festival next fall. We'll see you there!
